

ARC-BC Process for Funded B.C. Independent Schools

ARC-BC (Accessible Resource Centre – British Columbia) is a collection of alternate format materials based on recommended resources for the B.C. K-12 curriculum. It contains digital resources in a variety of formats created for students with perceptual disabilities.

Not yet registered?

To access the alternate format materials:

- School principals must submit to a completed “ARC-BC Community Application” and a signed “Agreement on Use of Alternate Format Materials, ARC-BC” to the ARC-BC Independent Schools Contact, Mr. Doug Stam via email (dstam@timothychristian.ca).
- The ARC-BC Independent Schools Contact will store completed applications and agreements for reference.
- Once schools have submitted an application form, individual teachers must register online at <http://www.arc-bc.org/>. After new ARC-BC users successfully complete an online training session with the ARC-BC Team Leader, the ARC-BC Independent Schools Contact will then approve newly registered teachers identified on the school’s application form.

Already Registered?

If you have difficulties logging in on ARC-BC, you can either click Forget Password or contact Mr. Doug Stam via email (dstam@timothychristian.ca) and request your user status to be re-activated for this school year.

For additional information about accessing ARC-BC’s alternate format collection, please contact Doug Stam dstam@timothychristian.ca at (604) 794-7114, or contact the ARC-BC Team Leader Ellen Hsieh ehsieh@prcvi.org at (604) 264-5052.